Washington, D.C. 20006

Dear Mr. Redman:

Thank you for your invitation to Mr. Casey for a luncheon with members of the TIME staff. It is my pleasure to relay to you that Mr. Casey accepts with pleasure and looks forward to being with you at 12:00 Noon, September 13th in your offices here in Washington. It is our policy that someone always accompany the Director on such occasions and, in this instance, I will be with him.

So that it is clearly understood from the outset, Mr. Casey's remarks will be on a deep background basis. We look forward to being with you on the 13th.

Sincerely yours,

Director, Office of External Affairs
